4. --- (1) For the purpose of the registration of electors there shall be----

(a) a Chief Elections Officer who shall be appointed in accordance with section 88(1) of the Constitution;

(b) the following officers: (i) a registration officer for each electoral district; (ii) such number of enumerators, photographers and other persons as may be deemed necessary;

(c) such number of registration offices or centres for the electoral districts as the Commission considers necessary.

(2) For the purposes of section 88 (5) and (10) of the Constitution the prescribed age shall be the age of sixty-five years and a person shall not be qualified to be appointed Chief Elections Officer under this section if he exceeds the age of sixty- five years.

(3) Without prejudice to the provisions of section 37 of the Constitution the Chief Elections Officer shall take all appropriate measure in accordance with this Act for the registration of electors in each electoral district and for the conduct of the election of members to the House.

(4) Every person appointed under this section shall take the prescribed oath.

(5) (1) Every officer appointed under the provisions of paragraph (b) of subsection (1) of the preceding section shall perform such duties under this Act as may be assigned to him from time to time by the Chief Elections Officer for the faithful performance of which he shall be paid such remuneration as is prescribed.

(2) A registration officer may be appointed for more than on electoral district.

(3) A registration Officer or enumerator may administer any oath To be taken under this Part of this Act and may require any Evidence, particulars or matter under the provisions of this Part to be given on oath before him.

(4) A registration officer shall maintain his office at the registration Office designated for a specified electoral district and shall supervise any registration centres established within the electoral district for which he is appointed.

6. (1) Subject to the provisions of this Act, a person shall be entitled to vote as an elector at an election in an electoral district only if on polling day he is registered in the register to be used at that election in that electoral district.

(2) Notwithstanding the provisions of section 56, after such date as shall be appointed being in any case not earlier than 31st December, 1980, no elector shall be permitted to vote at any election without first producing his identification card.

7. Subject to the provisions of this Act, a person shall be qualified to be registered as an elector for an electoral district only if, on the qualifying date he----

(a) is a person who is--- (i) a citizen of Saint Lucia ; or (ii) a Commonwealth citizen who has resided continuously in Saint Lucia for not less than seven years immediately preceding the qualifying date;

(b) has attained the age of 18 years;

(c) has resided continuously in that electoral district for a period of at least two months preceding the qualifying date.

8. (1) A person shall be qualified to be registered as an elector for one electoral district only.

(2) Where a person who is registered as an elector for an electoral district he shall not on that account cease to reside in that electoral district he shall not on that account cease to be qualified to be registered as an elector for that electoral district until he has become registered as an elector for another electoral district.

(3) In reckoning the period of residence of an elector in an electoral district, the period between the qualifying date and polling day in that district shall not be reckoned as a period of residence.

9. (1) Subject to the provisions of this Act, every person who is qualified to be registered as an elector for an electoral district, shall be registered in the register

For that electoral district if----

(a) he is duly registered in the prescribed form at a registration office or centre within the electoral district where he resides, or at such other office or centre designated for the registration of electors under this Act; or

(b) he is duly registered by an enumerator in a house to house enumeration conducted in the electoral district in which he resides.

(2) Every person who is qualified to be registered as an elector shall be issued at the time of his registration or as soon thereafter as may be practicable, an identification card in the prescribed form.

(4) A person to whom an identification card has been issued shall be the person entitled to the custody and possession thereof.

10. (1) An elector whose identification card has been lost, defaced or destroyed shall be issued with another identification card upon application in the prescribed form to the Chief Elections Officer and upon payment of such fees as may be prescribed.

(2) Where the Chief Elections Officer is satisfied that an identification card is so defaced or faded as to be no longer distinguishable he may at any time issue to an elector registered under this Act a new identification card.

11. (1) For the purpose of effecting savings in costs and for the avoidance of duplication of identity cards, the Chief Elections Officer may with the approval of the Minister collaborate with any government department or public or statutory authority in the issue of identification cards.

(2) An identification card issued in pursuance of subsection (1) may contain thereon in addition to the prescribed particulars, as are required by the government department or public or statutory authority concerned.

12. (1) It shall be lawful for the Chief Elections Officer

(a) to carry out by means of house to house enumeration such verification as he considers necessary for the purpose of ensuring that a person registered at a registration office or centre has been duly registered in regard to his place of residence within an electoral district; and

(b) upon reasonable grounds to require any person to produce a birth certificate or other document for the purpose of determining his qualification for registration as an elector and the particulars of the registration.

(2) Where it is observed as a result of a house-to-house enumeration that an elector registered at a registration office, or centre does not reside at the place of residence which he submitted at the registration office or centre where he was registered, the Chief Elections Officer shall by notice published in the Gazette and in a local newspaper so notify the elector and shall after giving him an opportunity to be heard, make such correction in the register or supplementary list, as may be necessary for the proper registration of that elector.

(3) Where an elector to whom notice has been given under the provisions of the preceding subsection has failed to appear before the Chief Elections Officer to delete the name of the elector from the register of electors.

(4) Where the Chief Elections Officer is satisfied that the failure of an elector to appear as required under the provisions of subsection (2) was not due to malice or negligence on the elector's part, he shall on being satisfied as to the correctness of the elector's place of residence register him as an elector at any time before publication of the Register.

13. A person is disqualified from being registered as an elector who

(a) is a person certified to be insane or otherwise adjudged to be of unsound mind under any enactment in force in Saint Lucia; or

(b) is undergoing any sentence of imprisonment in Saint Lucia or any other part of the Commonwealth; or

(c) is under sentence of death imposed on him by a Court, in any part of the Commonwealth; or

(d) is disqualified for registration as an elector by virtue of any enactment in force in Saint Lucia by reason of his having been convicted of any offence relating to elections; or

(e) is disqualified therefrom by any other law.

14. A person registered under this Act shall remain registered unless and until his name is deleted from the register by or under the authority of the Chief Elections Officer because-

(a) he has died; or

(b) he, being a person otherwise qualified as an elector, has been absent from Saint Lucia for a continuous period of three years or more; or

(c) he has become disqualified for registration under the provisions of this Act or of any other enactment.

15 (1) Without prejudice to the provisions of section 17, there shall be prepared, revised and published for each electoral district in accordance with this Act, a register of electors qualified to vote at any election in that electoral district.

(2) After the publication of the register no elector shall be entitled to vote at any election in an electoral district unless his name is registered therein.

(3) Where the name of an elector which appeared in any supplementary list has through inadvertence been omitted from the register or where a name should have been deleted from the register in consequence of successful objection thereto, the Chief Elections Officer shall make the necessary additions to or deletions from the register and shall sign and stamp the same.

16. (1) without prejudice to the provisions of section 17, there shall be in relation to each electoral district a register of police electors.

(2) There shall be included in the register of police electors every Person serving in the Royal Saint Lucia Police Force on the qualifying date whom the registration officer is satisfied is not disqualified from being registered under this Act or any other enactment in force.

(3) The Chief Elections Officer shall cause the name of any person whose name appears upon the register of police electors in any electoral district to be deleted from the official list of electors for any polling division.

(4) The register of police electors shall be deemed to form part of the official list of electors for the polling station nearest to the office of the returning officer.

17. (1) Upon the adoption by the Commission of the existing lists in the manner provided by subsection (2) of this section ---

(a) the existing lists (with corrections) shall be deemed to have been duly prepared, revised and published in accordance with the laws in force immediately before the commencement of the Constitution;

(b) the existing lists (with corrections) shall be deemed to be the register of electors for each electoral district and shall be a permanent registration of the electors named therein subject only to such revision and corrections thereof as are authorised by this Act;

(c) the existing lists (with corrections) being then the register shall be used for all elections held during the year 1979 in the several electoral districts.

(2) The Commission may adopt the existing lists (with corrections) by publication of a notice to that effect in the Gazette.

(3) In this section--- "the existing lists" means the lists of electors for the several electoral districts entitled "Register of Electors" and "Register of Police Electors" which were prepared and revised by the person who was the Chief Registration Officer under the laws in force immediately before the commencement of the Constitution and which was signed by that person (however designated) and dated and published on the 15th May, 1979 by copies thereof being made available for inspection at the electoral office and at specified public places in the electoral districts to which they relate. "Corrections" means such additions to the existing lists as are authorised under section 18 of this Act.

(4) For the purposes of section 18 the register for the year 1979 shall be deemed to have been published on the date of the notice referred to in subsection (2) of this section.

18. (1) where a person is lawfully in possession of an identification card and his name does not appear on the register for the electoral district in which he resides, such person may not later than 7 days after the publication of the register, apply in the prescribed form and at the appropriate registration office for the inclusion of his name in such register.

(2) The Chief Elections Officer shall promptly cause to be Published the name, address, occupation and identification number of such applicant and all objections to the inclusion of the name of the applicant in the register shall be made in the prescribed form not later than 7 days after such publication.

(3) On a date fixed and published by the Chief Elections Officer, (being a date not less than 3 days after the expiration of the period of publication of objections) the Chief Elections Officer shall determine such objections as may have been made and if he decides in favour of the applicant, shall add the name of the applicant to the register, shall sign and seal the same, and shall cause the same to be published.

19. (1) A person who is qualified to be registered as an elector for an electoral district but whose name does not appear on the Register or supplementary list shall be entitled to be registered upon making application in the prescribed form and during the prescribed period, at a registration office or centre designated for the registration of electors for that particular electoral district.

(2) Any person whose name appears on any register or Supplementary list may object in the prescribed form and during the prescribed period to the inclusion of any other name on such list.

(3) All claims for registration made by persons whose name do not appear on the register or supplementary list and all objections to the registration of any persons whose names appear on any supplementary list duly made in the prescribed form and during the prescribed period shall be determined in accordance with this Act by the Registration Officer for the electoral district to which the register or supplementary list in question relates.

(4) Where under the provisions of this section any claim or Objection has been disallowed a Registration Officer or claimant or objector may refer the matter in the prescribed form to the Commission whose decision shall be final.

(5) Where a successful objection has been made to the registration of an elector, his name shall be deleted from the list of electors and he shall not use the identification card issued to him for any electoral purposes.

20. (1) The Chief Elections Officer shall at intervals of not more than six months commencing from the latter half of the year 1979, publish for each electoral district a supplementary list containing----

(a) the names of all persons who have been registered as electors in each electoral district under the provisions of this Act, since the publication of the last register of electors;

(b) the names of all electors who because of a change of address have applied in the prescribed form for an alteration in registration either from one electoral district to another or within an electoral district.

(2) Not later than the 31st day of January in each year subsequent To the year 1979, the Chief Elections Officer shall cause to be revised the register of electors for each electoral district by---

(a) adding therein the names of all persons who have been registered as electors during the preceding year;

(b) deleting therefrom the names of all persons who have ceased to be entitled to registration as electors under the provisions of this Act;

(c) making such other alterations in the Register as are provided under this Act.

(3) Not later than the 31st day of March in each subsequent year, The Chief Elections Officer shall publish the register of electors for each electoral district as revised under the provisions of this section.

(4) The register of electors for each electoral district as revised under this section shall remain in force until the next revision of the register as herein provided.

(5) An elector whose name has been published under the provisions shall in case of an election in the electoral district in which he is registered be entitled to vote thereat notwithstanding that his name does not appear on the register of electors for that electoral district.

21. Where under this Act any list of matter is required to be published, such publication shall be effected by the posting of such list or matter In a conspicuous place at the office of the Chief Elections Officer, all Public libraries, appropriate registration centres and such other places as the Commission may direct by Notice in the Gazette.

22. (1) The register as prepared or revised under this Act shall be the register for the electoral district to which it relates and shall be Used for any election in that electoral district until the register is next revised in pursuance of section 20.

(2) If a register for an electoral district is not published within the Time required by this Act then, until the date following the day on which it is published, the previous register for that electoral district shall continue in force and where any register used at an election is a register continued in force by this subsection, this Act shall have effect in relation to that register as if it were the register revised pursuant to the provisions of section 20

23. If as a result of any fire, disaster, calamity or otherwise the register for an electoral district has been destroyed or is unavailable, the electoral Commission may direct that a register for that electoral district shall be prepared and published by the Chief Elections Officer in accordance with the provisions of this Act and that such preparation shall commence on the day so directed.

24. (1) The register prepared or revised pursuant to the provisions of this Act shall be conclusive of the following questions: ---

(a) whether or not any person registered therein was on the date of publication of the register resident at the address shown;

(b) whether or not an address is in any electoral district or any particular part of an electoral district.

(2) No misnomer or inaccurate description of any person or place named in any list or register of electors, or any record or nomination paper, ballot paper, notice or other document required for the purposes of this Act shall affect the full operation of the document with respect to that person or place in any case where the description of the person or place is such as to be understood.

25. Where any matter in connection with the preparation or publication of a supplementary list, a revised list or any list or register of electors under this part is omitted or not done or cannot be done at the time required by or under this part or is done before or after that time or is otherwise irregularly done in manner or form, the Minister may by Order at any time before or after the time within which such matter is required to be done, extend that time or validate any matter so done before or after the time required or so irregularly done in manner or form.

26. (1) Every person who knowing or having reasonable cause to believe that he---

(a) is not a citizen of Saint Lucia; or

(b) is not a Commonwealth citizen continuously resident in Saint Lucia for not less than seven years; or

(c) has not or will not have attained the age of 18 years on or before the qualifying date;

(e) is subject to any legal incapacity as is mentioned in section 13; makes any claim to be included in any list or register shall be liable on summary conviction to the fine of two hundred and fifty dollars or to imprisonment for six months.

(2) Every person who objects to the inclusion of any other person in any list or register of electors prepared in pursuance of this Act upon any grounds which he knows or has reasonable cause to believe to be false shall be liable on summary conviction to a fine of two hundred and fifty dollars or to imprisonment for six months.

(3) Every person who knowingly makes a false statement for the purpose of being registered as an elector shall be liable on summary conviction to a fine of two hundred and fifty dollars or to imprisonment for six months.

(4) Every person who in the course of the preparation or revision of any list or register of electors makes before the Chief Elections Officer or any registration officer or enumerator any statement on oath or any sworn affirmation which he knows to be false or does not believe to be true shall be liable on summary conviction to a fine of two hundred and fifty dollars or to imprisonment for six months.

27. A registration officer or enumerator who willfully and without reasonable excuse, omits to register the name of any person entitled to be registered is guilty of an offence and liable on summary conviction to a fine of five hundred dollars or to imprisonment for twelve months or to both such fine and imprisonment, and in addition shall forfeit his right to payment for his services as a registration officer or enumerator, as the case may be, and shall be incapable during a period of seven years from the date of his conviction:-

(a) of being qualified as an elector;

(b) of being elected a member of the House and in the event of an appeal the incapacity shall continue until the appeal is determined and thereafter, unless the conviction is quashed, remain in force for a period of seven years from the determination of the appeal unless the court hearing the appeal shall direct that the period of seven years shall run from the date of conviction

28. (1) Subject to the provisions of this section, each electoral district shall be divided into polling divisions

(2) Each polling division shall so far as practicable contain Approximately six hundred electors taken from the register for that electoral district which shall form the official list of electors for that polling division.

(3) Where the Commission is satisfied that by reason of congestion or the sparsity of the population or other special circumstances it is more convenient so to do, they may notwithstanding anything contained in subsection (2), constitute a polling division containing more or less than six hundred electors.

(4) In determining the boundaries of any polling division the Commission shall have regard to geographical considerations and such other factors as may affect the facilities of communication between various places within the polling division.

(5) It shall be the duty of the Commission to keep the polling divisions of each electoral district under review and to make such alterations in such districts including the abolition or establishment of any polling division as they may consider proper having regard to the provisions of subsections (2), (3) and (4) and by Notice in the Gazette and such other manner as he sees fit publish any alterations made under this section.

(6) The Minister may make Regulations providing for the adaptation of any list of electors to any alteration of polling divisions and may make in such Regulations special provision for cases where any alteration of polling divisions is made between the publication of any list and the coming into force of any register of electors; but except in cases for which such provision is made by Regulations, an alteration of polling divisions made under the provisions of this section shall not be effective until the revision of the register pursuant to section 20 after the alteration is made.

(7) Any decision taken or act done under the foregoing provisions of this section shall be effective as from the date it is approved by the Minister.

PART III

(2) Forthwith upon his appointment every poll clerk shall take and Subscribe an oath in the form set out as Form No. 5 in the Third Schedule and shall transmit such oath to the returning officer.

(3) If any presiding officer dies or becomes incapable of performing his duties during the taking of the poll, the poll clerk shall forthwith assume the office of the presiding officer and shall appoint some other person to act as poll clerk.

(4) Every person appointed to act as poll clerk under the last Subsection shall forthwith take and subscribe the oath of a poll clerk.

34. Every election officer and every person who is required by this Act to take an oath may take such oath either before a Justice of the Peace or before any registration officer, returning officer or presiding officer or poll clerk appointed in accordance with the provisions of this Act and every such registration officer, returning officer, presiding officer and poll clerk is hereby authorised and empowered to administer any oaths required by this Act to be made by any election officer or other person.

35. No election officer shall be entitled to nomination as a candidate for election at an election for which he is an election officer.

PART IV

ELECTIONS

Arrangements for Elections

36. (1) For the purposes of every General Election of members of the House, and for the purposes of the election of members to fill vacancies in the House caused by death, resignation, or otherwise, the Governor-General shall issue Writs under the Public Seal of the State, addressed to the returning officers of the respective electoral districts for which members are to be returned. Such Writs shall be forwarded to the Commission for transmission to the several returning officers.

(2) Every writ shall be in the form set out as Form I in the Third Schedule and shall specify:--

(a) the day of the nomination of candidates being not less than seven and not more than fourteen days after the day of issue of the writ;

(b) the day upon which, if necessary, the poll shall be taken, being not less than seven days and not more than fourteen days after the day of the nomination of candidates;

(c) the day the writ is returnable to the Governor-General being not more than seven days after the polling day.

(3) Upon receipt of such writ every returning officer shall proceed To hold the election in the manner hereinafter provided.

37. Upon receipt of such writ every Returning Officer shall give notice thereof, and of the day and place fixed for the nomination of candidates, by publication in the Gazette and one or more local newspapers at least seven days before the day fixed for such nomination; and the returning officer shall give further notice of the issue of such writ and of the time and place for the nomination of candidates by causing notices in the form set out as Form No. 6 in the Third Schedule to be posted or affixed in some conspicuous place near the principal door of every Court House, Police Station and Revenue Office, and in any other place he may deem necessary.

38. Before the day fixed for the nomination of candidates, the Chief Elections Officer shall supply the returning officer with the prescribed number of copies of the register for the time being in force by virtue of this Act.

PART V

PROCEDURE AT ELECTIONS

39. (1) On the day and at the place fixed for the nomination of candidates, the returning officer shall attend at nine o'clock in the morning to receive the nomination of candidates for the seat to be filled.

(2) (a) must be nominated in writing by not fewer than six registered electors of the electoral district for which he seeks to be elected; and (b) must consent in writing to such nomination, in the form set out as Form No. 7 in the Third Schedule.

(3) The nomination of a candidate shall not be deemed to be void For the reason only that subsequent to nomination day, any person by whom his nomination paper was signed, is struck off the list of electors for the relevant electoral district.

(4) The returning officer shall at the place and time fixed in subsection (1) hereof and within three hours thereafter, receive such nomination papers prepared in accordance with this Act as many be tendered to him.

(5) Every candidate shall at the time of his nomination deliver or cause to be delivered to the returning officer a statutory declaration of his qualification made and subscribed by such candidate or, if the candidate is absent from Saint Lucia on nomination day, by his duly authorised agent, in the form Form set out as Form No. 8 or Form No. 8A, as the case may be, in the Third Schedule. If such statutory declaration is not delivered as aforesaid the nomination of such candidate shall be void.

(6) Every candidate shall at the time of his nomination deposit, or cause to be deposited, with the returning officer, the sum of two hundred and fifty dollars in cash, and if he fails to do so⁹, the nomination of such candidate shall be void.

40. (1) The full amount of every deposit made under subsection (8) of the last preceding section shall forthwith after its receipt be transmitted by the returning officer to the Accountant General.

(2) The full amount of every such deposit shall be returned by the Accountant General to the person who made such deposit upon the production by him, within one month of the conclusion of the election in respect of which the deposit was made, of a certificate from the Chief Elections Officer that the candidate was elected or polled not less than one-eighth of the total number of votes counted at the election, or died before the close of the poll on polling day.

(3) For the purposes of this section the number of votes polled shall be deemed to be the number of ballot papers (other than rejected ballot papers and spoiled ballot papers) counted.

(4) Except as otherwise provided in this section, every such deposit shall, at the expiration of one month from the conclusion of the election in respect of which it was made, be credited to general revenue.

41. (1) If there shall be more than one candidate duly nominated a poll of electors shall be taken, and in such case the returning officer shall adjourn the election to the day specified in the writ, and a poll shall be taken on such day in the manner hereinafter provided.

(2) The returning officer shall, as soon as practicable after Adjourning the election, give notice of the day and time on which and the address of the polling stations within each polling division at which the poll will be taken and the names of the candidates nominated for election and of the place where and day and time when the number of votes given to the several candidates will be finally counted, by publication thereof in the Gazette and one local newspaper; and by causing notices to be posted in such places in the district as he may deem necessary in the form set out as Form No. 10 in the Third Schedule.

43. (1) Subject to the provisions of sections 55 and 56 of the Constitution, where at any time between the issue of a writ under section 36 (1) of this Act and the day appointed by the the writ for the taking of the poll at any election the Governor General is satisfied that it is expedient so to do by reason of –

(a) The threat or existence of a state of war between Saint Lucia and any foreign state; or

(b) The occurrence of any riot or the existence or threatened existence of any unlawful or tumultuous assembly; or

(c) the occurrence of any earthquake, hurricane, flood, fire, outbreak of pestilence or outbreak of infectious disease or other calamity whether similar to the foregoing or not; or

(d) the likelihood that the register for all electoral districts or for any particular electoral district will not be printed before the day appointed for the taking of the poll or that any essential electoral supplies or materials will not be available in adequate quantities upon such polling day, he may by Proclamation adjourn the taking of the poll to some other day specified in such Proclamation not being more than thirty days after the day specified in the writ issued under section 36 (1) of this Act.

(2) Any Proclamation under subsection (1) of this section made pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (c) or (d) thereof may be expressed to apply only to such electoral districts as are specified in such Proclamation in which event the poll shall be taken in any electoral districts not so specified upon the day appointed for the taking of the poll under section 36 (2) of this Act.

(3) Where any Proclamation is made under this section the writs for all electoral districts to which such Proclamation applies shall be deemed to have been amended by the substitution for the day specified in such writs as being the day for the taking of the poll, of the day so specified in such Proclamation.

(4) Where any Proclamation under this section is made before the day which would have been nomination day if such Proclamation had not been made, nomination day shall be deemed to have been adjourned to the fifteenth day next before the day by which the taking of the poll is adjourned by such Proclamation: Provided that if such fifteenth day is a Sunday or a public holiday nomination day shall be deemed to be adjourned to the first day not being a Sunday or a public holiday after such fifteenth day.

(5) Where any Proclamation is made under this section after Nomination day the adjournment by such Proclamation of the day upon which the poll is taken shall in no way affect the validity of any nomination validly made upon nomination day and no other nomination shall be made.

44. (1) Any candidate duly nominated may, not less than four clear days before the day fixed for taking the poll, withdraw from his candidature by giving notice to the effect, signed by him, to the returning officer, provided that on such withdrawal there remains not less than one duly nominated candidate.

(2) If any such candidate withdraws from his candidature in accordance with subsection (1) hereof, or dies before the day fixed for taking the poll, the returning officer shall forthwith give public notice of such withdrawal or death in the Gazette and in one local newspaper; and if on such withdrawal or death there remains only one duly nominated candidate, the returning officer shall forthwith declare such candidate to have been elected and shall immediately thereafter certify by endorsement on the writ of election the return of such candidate in the form set out as Form No. 11 in the third Schedule and shall return the writ so endorsed to the Commission for transmission to the Governor General within the time specified therein.

45. (1) The poll shall be taken in each polling station by secret ballot in accordance with the provisions of this Act.

(2) The ballot paper of each voter shall be a printed paper on which the names, addresses and occupations of the candidates alphabetically arranged in the order of their surnames and numbered accordingly shall be printed exactly as they are set out in their respective nomination papers. Opposite the name of each candidate there shall be a prescribed symbol. The ballot paper shall have a counterfoil and between the counterfoil and the stub, the whole as in the form set out as Form No. 12 in the Third Schedule.

(3) The ballot papers shall be numbered on the top of the stub and the counterfoil, the same number being printed or written on the stub as on the counterfoil. The ballot papers shall be bound or stitched in books containing ten, twenty-five, fifty or one hundred ballots.

(4) The symbols to be used by a political party or candidate at an election shall be one of the symbols shown in the Fourth Schedule.

(5) Where a political party has in the preceding election used a particular symbol the Chief Elections Officer shall, at the request in writing of the secretary of such political party, assign the same symbol to that party.

46. The returning officer shall establish for each polling division such number of polling stations as the chief Elections Officer shall determine, each polling station being in premises of convenient access, with an outside door for the admission of electors and where possible, with another door through which electors may leave after they have voted and each presiding officer shall take care beforehand that his polling station provided with proper doors, barriers, tables, chairs and other convenience and that the same are properly arranged for carrying out the provisions of this Act with respect to the taking of the poll.

(i) a sufficient number of ballot papers for at least the number of electors on the official list of electors of such presiding officer's polling station;

(ii) a statement showing the number of ballot papers so supplied, with their serial numbers;

- (iii) the necessary materials for electors to mark their ballot papers;
- (iv) at least three copies of printed directions in the form set out as Form No. 13 in the Third Schedule for the guidance of electors in voting;
- (v) a copy of this Act;
- (vi) three copies of the official list of electors for use at his polling station;
- (vii) a ballot box;
- (viii) a blank poll book;
- (ix) the several forms of oaths to be administered to electors printed together on a card;
- (x) the necessary polling station cards; and
- (xi) the necessary envelopes and such other forms and supplies as may be authorised or furnished by the Chief elections Officer;

(b) to each candidate in an election in his electoral district a copy of the register of police electors.

(2) Until the opening of the poll the presiding officer shall keep the blank poll book, official lists of electors, forms of oaths, envelopes, ballot papers and other election supplies carefully locked up in the ballot box, and shall take every precaution for their safe keeping and to prevent any person from having unlawful access to them.

48. (1) Each presiding officer shall, on or before the day fixed for taking the poll, visit his polling station and see that it is provided with proper Conveniences as aforesaid for taking the poll.

(2) Before the hours fixed for the opening of the poll the presiding officer shall post up in each compartment of the polling station and in a conspicuous place outside of the polling station one copy of the directions referred to in sub-paragraph (iv) of subsection (1) of the preceding section.

49. The taking of the poll at each polling station shall be between half-past six in the morning and six o'clock in the afternoon of the same day.

50. (1) The Chief Elections Officer shall supply to each returning officer a number of ballot boxes equal to the number of ballot boxes equal to the number of polling stations in his electoral district.

(2) Every Ballot box shall be made of some durable material, with one lock and key and a slit or narrow opening in the top, and so constructed that the ballot papers may be introduced therein but cannot be withdrawn therefrom unless the box is unlocked.

(3) The ballot boxes shall be of such size as to accommodate therein all the election documents which the presiding officer is required by section 63 (10) of this act, to transmit or deliver to the returning officer and all other election supplies except ink and pencil.

51. (1) No person shall be entitled to vote in any polling division unless his name appears on the official list of electors for that polling division.

(2) A person registered as an elector shall not be prevented from voting; but this provision shall not prevent the rejection of his vote on a scrutiny or affect his liability to any penalty for voting.

52. (1) No person shall at an election, vote as an elector ----

(a) in more than one electoral district or more than once in the same electoral district; or

(b) knowing that he is not qualified so to do.

(2) Any person who contravenes the provisions of subsection (1) Shall be liable summarily to imprisonment for three months.

53. Every person whose name appears upon the Register of Police Electors for any electoral district shall vote if he votes at all, in accordance with the provisions of The Second Schedule to this Act.

54. (1) Where any person whose name appears upon the official list for any polling station is appointed as presiding officer or poll clerk for for some other polling station in the same electoral district, the returning officer shall transfer the name of the presiding officer or poll clerk, as the case may be, to the list for the polling station of which such person is appointed presiding officer or poll clerk.

(2) The returning officer shall give notice in writing to every candidate in his electoral district of any transfer made under the last presiding subsection and the presiding officer of the polling station at which the person whose name is so transferred would have been entitled to vote but for the provisions of the next succeeding section of this Act.

55. (1) Every person whose name is transferred, in accordance with the provisions of the last preceding section, from any official list for any polling station to any other such official list shall vote, if he is appointed presiding officer or poll clerk, as the case may be.

(2) Every presiding officer who issues to any person whose name has been transferred from any official list to any other official list any ballot paper at any polling station other than the polling station of the polling division to which such person's name has been transferred, shall be liable, on summary conviction, to a fine of two hundred and fifty dollars or to imprisonment for three months.

56. (1) At the hour fixed for opening the poll, the presiding officer and the poll clerk shall, in the presence of the candidates, their agents, and such of the electors as are present, open the ballot box and satisfy themselves and all present that there are no ballot papers or other papers therein, after which the box shall be locked and the presiding officer shall keep the key thereof; the box shall be placed on a table in full view of all present and shall be maintained there until the close of the poll.

(2) Immediately after the ballot box is so locked, the presiding officer shall call upon the electors to vote.

(3) The presiding officer shall secure the admittance of every elector into the polling station, and shall see that they are not impeded or molested at or about the polling station.

(4) Each elector upon entering a polling station shall declare his name. The poll clerk shall ascertain whether the name of the elector appears on the official list of electors for the polling station and if it so appears he shall call out the name, address, occupation and number of the elector as stated in the official list. When this has been done, the presiding officer shall require the elector to identify himself, which the elector shall do by producing any one of the following:-

(a) his identification card issued under this Act;

(g) such other means of identification as the presiding officer may consider adequate.

(5) Where the provisions of the preceding subsection have been complied with, the elector's name, address and occupation shall be entered in the poll book to be kept by the poll clerk in the form set out as Form No. 14 in the Third Schedule, a number corresponding to the registration number allotted to the elector on the official list of electors being prefixed to the elector's name in the appropriate column of the poll book.

(6) It shall be lawful for the presiding officer to put to an elector such questions as he considers necessary in order to ascertain the elector's identity and whether the elector has already voted; but save as is permitted under this Act, no inquiry shall be made as to the right of an elector to vote.

(7) Before the presiding officer issues the elector a ballot paper, he shall, in order to ascertain whether the elector has not previously voted proceed to examine the hands and fingers of the elector and shall either-

(a) mark every elector with electoral ink to his satisfaction on the outer palmar surface of the right hand, or where the elector has no right hand, the presiding officer shall mark the elector with electoral ink to his satisfaction on the outer palmar surface of the left hand, or where there is no palmar surface in such place as the presiding officer may think fit; or

(b) require the elector to immerse his right index finger in electoral ink and where the elector has no right index finger the presiding officer shall require the elector to immerse such other finger as he, the presiding officer may determine; but the presiding officer shall not require an elector to immerse a finger in electoral ink if he is satisfied that the elector has suffered such injury to one of his fingers which is of such a nature as to make it undesirable for him to immerse any finger in such electoral ink or where there is on the fingers of such elector any substance which in the opinion of the presiding officer, is likely to prevent the adhesion of the electoral ink and which has not been removed to his satisfaction.

(8) Where the requirements of the foregoing subsection of this section have been fulfilled, the presiding officer shall, forthwith, hand such elector a ballot paper: Provided that where any elector refuses to comply with the foregoing provisions of this section or the presiding officer is satisfied that the elector has already been marked in accordance with the foregoing provisions of this section he shall refuse to issue to him a ballot paper.

57. The poll clerk shall---

(a) make such entries in the poll book as the presiding officer pursuant to any provision of this Act directs; and

(b) enter in the poll book opposite the name of each voter as soon as the voter's ballot paper has been deposited in the ballot box, the word "Voted"; and

(c) enter in the poll book the word "Sworn" or "Affirmed" opposite the name of each elector to whom any oath or affirmation has been administered indicating the nature of the oath or affirmation; and

(d) enter in the poll book the words "Refused to be sworn" or "Refused to answer", opposite the name of each elector who has refused to take an oath or to affirm, when he has been legally required so to do, or has refused to answer questions which he has been legally required to answer; and

(e) enter in the poll book any objection made on behalf of any candidate.

58. (1) The presiding officer shall keep order at his polling station and shall regulate the number of voters to be admitted at a time, and shall exclude all other persons except his assistants, the candidates, not more than two agents for each candidate appointed by such candidate in writing in the form set out as form No. 15 in the Third Schedule, and the constables on duty.

(2) The agents aforesaid shall be posted in such a place that they can see each person who presents himself as an elector, hear his name as given in by him and witness the proceedings, but so that they cannot see how any elector votes. They shall not intervene in the proceedings save in so far as may be allowed by this Act.

(3) If any person persists, after being warned, in disobeying the directions of the presiding officer or in acting in contravention of this section it shall be lawful for the presiding officer to cause him to be removed from the polling station.

59. (1) Each elector shall receive from the presiding officer a ballot paper on which such officer has previously put his initials so placed as indicated in the form set out as Form No. 12 in the Third Schedule that when the ballot paper is folded they can be seen without opening it and on the counterfoil of which he has placed a number corresponding to the registration number on the official list of electors allotted to the elector and entered in the poll book opposite the name of such elector.

(2) (a) The presiding officer shall instruct the elector how to make his mark and shall properly fold the elector's ballot paper keeping the counterfoil, directing him to return with the ballot paper when marked, folded as shown, but shall not inquire or see for whom the elector intends to vote except when the elector is unable to vote in the manner provided by this Act on account of blindness or other physical incapacity; (b) In instructing the elector how to make his mark the presiding officer shall only inform him to mark his ballot paper by marking with a black lead pencil which he will find in the polling compartment a cross within the space containing the name and symbol of the candidate for whom he intends to vote. For the purposes of this subsection the presiding officer shall not use a ballot paper or any other similar paper.

(3) The elector on receiving the ballot paper shall forthwith enter one of the polling compartments and there mark his Ballot paper by making with a black lead pencil and not otherwise a cross within the space containing the name and symbol of the candidate for whom he intends to vote and he shall then fold the ballot paper as directed so that the initials to the presiding officer shall without unfolding the ballot paper place it in the ballot box in the presence of the presiding officer.

(4) An elector who has inadvertently so dealt with the ballot paper delivered to him that it cannot conveniently be used shall restore it to the presiding officer who shall cancel it by writing the word "Spoiled" across the face of the same.

The presiding officer shall then deliver another ballot paper to the elector.

(5) Every elector shall vote without undue delay and shall leave the polling station as soon as his ballot paper has been put into the ballot box.

(6) If at the hour of closing of the poll there are any electors inside the polling station who are qualified to vote and have not been able to do so since their arrival at the polling station, the poll shall be kept open a sufficient time to enable them to vote, but no one not actually present within the polling station at the hour of closing shall be allowed to vote.

60. (1) Subject to the provisions of this Act as to proof of qualification as an elector and as to the administration of cases. oaths, if a person representing himself to be a particular elector applies for a ballot paper after another person has voted as such elector, he shall be entitled to receive a ballot paper and to vote after taking the oath of identity, in the form set out as Form No. 16 in the Third Schedule and otherwise establishing his identity to the satisfaction of the presiding officer.

(2) In such case, the presiding officer shall put on the ballot paper his initials together with a number corresponding to the registration number on the official list of electors allotted to the voter and entered in the poll book opposite the name of such voter and the poll clerk shall enter in the poll book---

(a) the name of such voter;

(b) a note of his having voted on a second ballot paper issued under the same name;

(c) the fact of the oath of identity having been required and taken and the fact of any other oaths being so required or taken; and

(d) any objections made on behalf of any and of which of the candidates.

(3) The presiding officer, on the application of any elector who is incapacitated, from any physical cause other than blindness, from voting in the manner provided by this Act, shall require the elector making such application to make oath in the form set out as Form No. 17 in the Third Schedule of his incapacity to vote without assistance and shall thereafter assist such elector by marking his ballot paper in the manner directed by such elector in the presence of the poll clerk and of the sworn agents of the candidates and of no other person and shall place such ballot in the ballot box.

(4) The presiding officer shall either deal with a blind elector in the same manner as with an otherwise incapacitated elector, or at the request of any blind elector who has taken the oath in the form set out as Form No. 18 in the Third Schedule and is accompanied by a friend who is an elector in the polling division, shall permit such friend to accompany the blind elector into the voting compartment and mark the elector's ballot paper for him. No person shall at any election be allowed to act as the friend of more than one blind elector.

(5) Any friend who is permitted to mark the ballot paper of a blind elector as aforesaid shall first be required to take an oath in the form set out as Form No. 19 in the Third Schedule.

(6) Whenever any elector has had his ballot paper marked as provided in subsection (3) or (4) of this section, the poll clerk shall enter in the poll book opposite the elector's name, in addition to any other requisite entry, the reason why such ballot paper was so marked.

61. (1) Where there is contained in the official list of electors the Particulars of an elector which correspond so closely with those on an elector's identification card or his registration card or his registration card or photo application form by whom a ballot paper is demanded as to suggest that the entry in such official list of electors was intended to refer to him, such person shall, upon taking the oath in the form set out as Form No. 20 in the Third Schedule and complying in all other respects with the provisions of this Act be entitled to receive a ballot paper and to vote. In any such case the name, address and if necessary the number shall be correctly entered in the poll book and the fact that the oath has been taken shall be entered in the proper column of the poll book.

(2) An elector, if required by the presiding officer or the poll clerk shall, before receiving his ballot paper, take an oath in the form set out as Form No. 21 in the Third Schedule and if he refuses to take the same, erasing lines shall be drawn through his name on the official list of electors and in the poll book, if such name has been entered in the said book and the words "refused to be sworn" shall be written thereafter.

(3) No elector who has refused to take any oath or affirmation or answer any question as required under this Act, shall be given a ballot paper or be permitted to remain in a polling station.

(4) Whenever the presiding officer does not understand the language spoken by an elector, he shall appoint and swear an interpreter who shall be the means of communication between him and the elector with reference to all matters required to enable such elector to vote and in case no interpreter is found, such elector shall not be allowed to vote.

62. (1) The presiding officer, the poll clerk, the candidates, not more than two agents for each candidate and the constables on duty, shall be the only persons permitted to remain in the polling station during the time the poll remains open.

(2) The agent of each candidate, on being admitted to the polling station, shall take an oath in the form set out as Form No. 22 in the Third Schedule.

(3) Agents of candidates may, with the permission of the presiding officer, absent themselves for and return to the polling station at any time before one hour previous to the close of the poll.

63. (1) Forthwith upon the close of the poll, in the presence and in full view of the poll clerk and the candidates or their agents and if the candidates or any of them are absent, then in the presence of such as are present and of at least two electors if none of the candidates is represented, the presiding officer shall—

(a) count the number of voters whose names appear in the poll book as having voted and make an entry thereof on the line immediately below the name of the voter who voted last thus; “the number of voters who voted at this election in this polling station is.....” (stating the number) and sign his name thereto;

(b) count the spoiled ballot papers, if any, place them in the special envelope supplied for that purpose and indicate there on the number of such spoiled ballot papers and seal it up;

(c) count the unused ballot papers, place them with all the stubs of all used ballot papers in the special envelope supplied for that purpose and indicate thereon the number of such unused ballot papers;

(d) check the number of ballot papers supplied by the returning officer against the number of unused ballot papers and the number of voters whose names appear in the poll book as having voted, in order to ascertain that all ballot papers are accounted for;

(e) open the ballot box, record and count the number of votes given to each candidate on the tally sheets supplied, giving full opportunity to those present to examine each ballot paper. The poll clerk and not less than two witnesses shall be supplied with tally upon which they may keep their own score as each vote is called out by the presiding officer;

(f) exhibit the ballot box empty to such persons as may be present in the polling station immediately after the counting of the votes.

(2) In counting the votes, the presiding officer shall reject all ballot papers---

(a) which have not been supplied by him; or

(b) which have not been marked for any candidate; or

(c) on which votes have been given for more than one candidate; or

(d) upon which there is any writing or mark by which the voter could be identified, but no ballot paper shall be rejected on account of any writing, number or mark placed thereon by any presiding officer.

(3) If, in the course of counting the votes any ballot paper is found with the counterfoil still attached thereto, the presiding officer shall (carefully concealing the numbers thereon from all persons present and without examining them himself) remove such counterfoil. He shall not reject the ballot paper merely by reason of his former failure to remove the counterfoil.

(4) If, in the course of counting the votes the presiding officer discovers that he has omitted to affix his initials to any ballot paper, as provided by subsection (1) of section 59 of this Act and as indicated in the form set out as Form No. 12 in the Third Schedule to this Act, he shall, in the presence of the poll clerk and the agents of the candidates, affix his initials to such ballot paper and shall count such ballot paper as if it had been initiated by him in the first place, provided that he is satisfied that the ballot paper is one that has been supplied by him and that every ballot paper supplied to him by the returning officer has been accounted for as provided by paragraph (d) of subsection (1) of the section.

(5) Nothing in subsections (2), (3) or (4) of this section shall relieve the presiding officer from any liability to which he may have become liable by reason of his having placed any writing, number or mark, other than his initials, on any ballot paper, or for his failure to remove the counterfoil at the time of the casting of the vote to which it relates or to affix his initials to any ballot paper before handing it to any elector.

(6) The presiding officer shall keep a record on the special form printed in the poll book of every objection made by any candidate, or his agent, to any ballot paper found in the ballot box and shall decide every question arising out of the objection. The decision of the presiding officer shall be final, subject to reversal on the final count by the returning officer or on petition questioning the election or return; and every such objection shall be numbered and a corresponding number placed on the back of the ballot paper and initialed by the presiding officer.

(7) All the ballot papers not rejected by the presiding officer shall be counted and a list kept of the number of votes given to each candidate and of the number of rejected ballot papers. The ballot papers which respectively indicate the votes given for each candidate shall be put into separate envelopes; all rejected ballot papers shall be put into a special envelope and all such envelopes shall be endorsed so as to indicate their contents and by such agents or witnesses present as may desire to sign their names thereon.

(8) The presiding officer and the poll clerk, immediately after the completion of the counting of the votes shall take and subscribe respectively the oaths in the forms set out as Form Nos. 23 and 24 in the Third Schedule which shall remain attached to the poll book.

(9) The presiding officer shall make the necessary number of copies of the statement of the poll in the form set out as Form No. 25 in the Third Schedule, one copy to remain attached to the poll book, one copy to be retained by the presiding officer and one copy for the returning officer which shall be enclosed in a special envelope supplied for the purpose, which envelope he shall seal and deliver personally or transmit to the returning officer.

(10) The poll book, the several envelopes containing the ballot papers --- unused, spoiled, rejected or counted for each candidate --- each lot in its proper envelope, the envelope containing the official list of electors and other documents used at the poll shall then be placed in the large envelope supplied for the purpose and this envelope shall then be sealed and placed in the ballot box. The ballot box shall then be locked and sealed with the seal of the presiding officer and forthwith conveyed or delivered to the returning officer. The returning officer may specially appoint one or more persons for the purpose of collecting the ballot boxes from a given number of polling stations and such person or persons shall, take the oath in the form set out as Form No.26 in the Third Schedule.
